Newfoundland and Labrador this morning.

7 government stories since yesterday,
3 breaking.

1 FEDERAL 5 PROVINCIAL 1 INDIGENOUS

Wakeham says Churchill Falls plan on track after Carney meeting

Premier Tony Wakeham met Prime Minister Mark Carney in Ottawa and said the Churchill Falls project is still full steam ahead. The province's dispute with Innu Nation remains unresolved.

OCT 27, 2026

Source: NTV News.

Health staffing review released with 21 recommendations

The NL Health Services core staffing review covers 6 sites and makes 21 recommendations. Health Minister Joedy Wall says government is consulting unions, while CUPE raised concerns.

OCT 27, 2026

Source: VOCM.

Province cutting gas and diesel tax to zero this winter

Finance Minister Craig Pardy says the provincial tax on gasoline and diesel, about 8 cents a litre, is removed Dec. 1 to March 31. An extension depends on oil prices.

OCT 26, 2026

Source: Government of Newfoundland and Labrador.

More affordability measures expected, package could top $100M

Pardy says a targeted measure worth at least $20 million is coming, after about $79 million for heating and gas. 2 more announcements could push the package past $100 million.

OCT 27, 2026

Source: VOCM.

Opposition questions Churchill Falls adviser's exit

Liberal Leader John Hogan says lawyer Bern Coffey ended his advisory contract the day before the House debated the Churchill Falls deal. Deputy Premier Barry Petten says there's no smoking gun.

OCT 27, 2026

Source: VOCM.

Teachers' union urges action on Labrador education issues

The NL Teachers' Association wrote to Education Minister Paul Dinn calling on government to act on critical education problems in Labrador.

OCT 27, 2026

Source: NTV News.

Nunatsiavut opens comment period on Nain wind micro-grid

The Nunatsiavut Government is seeking public input on a wind and battery project to cut diesel use in Nain. Comments are open until Nov. 26.

OCT 27, 2026

Source: Nunatsiavut Government.

That was Newfoundland and Labrador at 5:00 a.m.

Events that fill. Campaigns that win. We plan conferences, AGMs and campaign announcements across Canada.

Book a 20-minute call