Yukon this morning.

4 government stories since yesterday,
2 breaking.

1 TERRITORIAL 1 MUNICIPAL 2 FEDERAL

Committee recommends $35,000 cap on Yukon political donations

An all-party committee's interim report backs banning foreign donations and stronger disclosure rules, and a majority supports a $35,000 annual cap. The final report is due in the 2027 spring sitting.

NOV 3, 2026

Source: Yukon News.

Whitehorse pitches about $210M in infrastructure projects to Ottawa

Mayor Kirk Cameron says the city and territory applied for about $160 million, plus $54 million in expressions of interest, including a Whistle Bend fire hall. He hopes to hear back after the federal budget.

NOV 3, 2026

Source: Yukon News.

Federal budget tabled tomorrow as Yukon waits on infrastructure asks

Finance Minister François-Philippe Champagne tables the 2026 federal budget on Nov. 5. Whitehorse and the Yukon government are waiting for answers on federal infrastructure funding requests.

NOV 5, 2026

Source: The Canadian Press.

CanNor commits $547,000 to improve Yukon timber access

CanNor will give the Yukon Wood Products Association up to $546,945 over 3 years. The money pays for 3 timber harvest plans and helps small operators get through assessments.

NOV 2, 2026

Source: Yukon News.

That was Yukon at 5:00 a.m.

Events that fill. Campaigns that win. We plan conferences, AGMs and campaign announcements across Canada.

Book a 20-minute call