Alberta this morning.

4 government stories since yesterday,
2 breaking.

2 PROVINCIAL 1 FEDERAL 1 INDIGENOUS

Provincial inspection blames systemic failures for Calgary water main breaks

Inspector David Goldie's 124-page, $1.2-million report makes 20 recommendations. Municipal Affairs Minister Dan Williams says deciding next steps will take months.

NOV 5, 2026

Source: The Canadian Press.

Nenshi and UCP spar over water report findings

Goldie found no evidence then-mayor Naheed Nenshi directed the omissions, though his office was briefed. Nenshi says he is cleared, while the UCP caucus says he did not act.

NOV 5, 2026

Source: Calgary Herald.

Energy sector praises federal budget as Alberta mayors raise concerns

The Nov. 5 federal budget drew support from Alberta's energy sector, with pipelines in focus. Some mayors flagged funding priorities they say are missing.

NOV 6, 2026

Source: CTV News Calgary.

Otipemisiwak Métis Government says federal budget falls short for Métis

President Andrea Sandmaier's government says Métis are named once in the budget. It wants dedicated funding and a timeline for Métis roles in major projects.

NOV 6, 2026

Source: Otipemisiwak Métis Government.

That was Alberta at 5:00 a.m.

Events that fill. Campaigns that win. We plan conferences, AGMs and campaign announcements across Canada.

Book a 20-minute call