New Brunswick this morning.

5 government stories since yesterday,
3 breaking.

5 PROVINCIAL

N.B. bids on Nackawic timberland as mill heads for shutdown

The province has bid on 106,574 acres AV Group is selling near Nackawic, with bids due Dec. 17. About 350 mill workers face layoffs as the mill idles at the end of October.

OCT 28, 2026

Source: CBC News.

Bill would write French immersion entry points into law

Education Minister Claire Johnson tabled Education Act amendments setting Grade 1 and Grade 6 as immersion entry points. Any future change would need the legislature's consideration.

OCT 28, 2026

Source: Government of New Brunswick.

Critics call province's fracking survey biased

Conservation groups say the 16-question survey on the 12-year fracking moratorium allowed multiple entries. A decision on the moratorium is expected in January 2027.

OCT 28, 2026

Source: CBC News.

Province moves to curb copper wire theft

The government plans changes to the Salvage Dealers Licensing Act to target copper wire theft. The goal is to protect telecommunications infrastructure and cell coverage.

OCT 27, 2026

Source: CTV Atlantic.

Legislature sits Thursday afternoon and Friday morning

MLAs return for a sitting at 1 p.m. on Oct. 29 and another at 9 a.m. on Oct. 30.

OCT 29, 2026

Source: Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick.

That was New Brunswick at 5:00 a.m.

Events that fill. Campaigns that win. We plan conferences, AGMs and campaign announcements across Canada.

Book a 20-minute call