Prince Edward Island this morning.

4 government stories since yesterday.

1 MUNICIPAL 3 PROVINCIAL

Final advance poll Friday ahead of Nov. 2 municipal elections

The last advance poll runs Oct. 30, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., in the 5 municipalities Elections P.E.I. administers, including Charlottetown. Voters in 56 communities choose councils Nov. 2.

OCT 30, 2026

Source: CBC News.

Mobile mental health service extended to March 2028

Joint provincial and federal funding has renewed P.E.I.'s mobile mental health program. The service, run by Medavie Health Services, will now operate to March 31, 2028.

OCT 27, 2026

Source: CBC News.

Province seeks feedback on Lands Protection Act amendments

Land and Environment Minister Darlene Compton opened consultation on a proposed amendment bill to the Lands Protection Act. Comments are due by Nov. 10.

OCT 27, 2026

Source: Government of P.E.I..

Applications open for 2027 correctional officer training program

Justice Minister Bloyce Thompson and Workforce Minister Jenn Redmond announced the intake for the 2027 training program. Applications close at noon on Nov. 13.

OCT 27, 2026

Source: Government of P.E.I..

That was Prince Edward Island at 5:00 a.m.

Events that fill. Campaigns that win.
We plan conferences, AGMs and campaign announcements across Canada.

Book a 20-minute call